

To determine the shape of this panel, you will use a spiling stick to find and measure each distance and angle on the hull.

Always make cardboard templates first, and adjust them to the hull before you transfer to plywood!

Use a bevel gage to transfer the marked lines to the cardboard template

