July 1st, 2018

July is here! Which means that soon we will be celebrating Independence Day. This is the day that we celebrate the event that changed the history of our nation, gaining our freedom from being ruled by another country. I can't imagine the excitement that must have taken place at that time. And through the years our country has had to fight to remain free. I am proud to be called an American.

There is another freedom that can take place in a person's life that has a greater impact than any other freedom that exists. This is the freedom that comes when someone accepts Christ as their Savior. There is no other freedom that can compare with this one. The freedom that comes from salvation will last for all eternity, not just our lifetime here on earth.

This freedom came at great costs, it cost the Son of God His life. For those who are saved, there will be a constant battle as they strive to live their lives out for the Lord. The good thing is that as child of God we are part of the family of God which offers great support and comfort in times of need. One of the great support tools is that we can lift each other up in prayer in our time of need. I am so grateful to be a part of a family that will help me to live for Him every single day. I love you all. I am glad to be your pastor.

Bro. Glen

"Praying at all times in the Spirit, with all prayer and supplication. To that end, keep alert with all perseverance, making supplication for all the saints, and also for me, that words may be given to me in opening my mouth boldly to proclaim the mystery of the gospel, for which I am an ambassador in chains, that I may declare it boldly, as I ought to speak."

– Galatians 6:18-20
