A Time of Dialogue on A Way Forward (for Clergy & Laity)

Hosted by Bishop Jeremiah Park

The Council of Bishops, request every Annual Conference to gather for Holy, Christian Conferencing; to provide feedback and input into the future of the church regarding three sketches that outline a possible new structure for the United Methodist Church as we seek to live in Unity.

To have a Holy, Christian Conferencing experience each participant will:

- Spend significant time in prayer for the Holy Spirit's presence in the gatherings
- Be fully present and engaged in the process
- The Council of Bishops is not bound by any of these three sketches
- Understand that these discussions, while prompted by the Denomination's disagreement over Human Sexuality, will not center around Human Sexuality
- Treat each person with respect, kindness and Christian compassion

The Williamsport District gathering will be held at Saint John’s-Newberry UMC on Saturday, February 17 from 9:00(gathering) until noon.

Please register by contacting the church office or the district office (williamsport@susumc.org) by Monday, February 12.

LOVING OTHERS

“Our Drug Epidemic” program presented by West Branch Drug & Alcohol, and law enforcement. Here on Tues., February 6.

Covering: Safety, Signs to look for, Resources & more

Sincere thanks for all your prayers and caring support of our Family Promise guests. They were so appreciative of your friendship and are working diligently towards obtaining safe and affordable housing for their families. We had a full week of blessings.

Our community dinner was recommended in an editorial in the Webb Weekly, for people to get out of the house. Through this we met many new people who enjoyed the comfort food and fellowship of the community dinner. Mark your calendar and join us on Thursday, February 15. You will be blessed.

The church has received thanks for the shut-in pages from Peggy Morris, June Flook, and Ellie Passino
