ANNOUNCEMENTS:

ENNEAGRAM WORKSHOP: Why do we do what we do? By examining our motivations, can we do better? While most personality assessments examine our behaviors and outward expressions of personality, the Enneagram moves behind what we do to understand why. Stemming from the Greek words ennea (nine) and grammos (a written symbol), this ancient tool offers nine distinct personality strategies people develop to cope with themselves, others, and the world. If used faithfully, the Enneagram can set you on a path to personal growth and transformation. Whether this is a tool you know well or your first introduction, this session will take you deeper into understanding who God truly created you to be. Sign up online at www.watkumc.org for the event on Sunday, October 3 in Grace Hall. Boxed Lunch ($10/lunch) from 12:15-1 pm; Workshop is held from 1-4 pm. Led by: Rev. Blair Boyd Zant.

BAND OF BROTHERS (BOBS): Meets Mondays at 6:30 pm in Seekers 120. Next Meeting 9/13/21. Please make plans to attend and get to know some of the WFUMC men and study with us. We are currently using the book The Holy Spirit by Charles C. Ryrie. A PDF copy of the book is available upon request. Contact Paul Klump at klumpr@netzero.com

UMM SMOKED RIBS: The UMM are selling Smoked Ribs as a fundraiser to support the missions of the UMM. Each slab of St. Louis style ribs is $30. Sign Up online to place your order, watkumc.org. Order deadline is Monday, September 20. Pay at pick up on Saturday, September 25 from 12 noon - 2 pm from the Scout Hut.

USHERS: Ushers are needed for both Worship Services. Sign Up online (watkumc.org) to sign up for 1 of 3 openings through September. Future training and other communications coming soon.

- Clean Up Sanctuary after Worship for any left items
- Usher removes completed Pew Pads (11 am only)
