

Believe in Your US

Large Group Experience #2:

Believe in Your US: Love God First

In every relationship, there's a gap at some point between your expectations and your spouse's behavior.
He always...she always...any time we need to go somewhere, he/she...
In the gap, we insert beliefs, judgments, absolutes. We assume the worst, or we can believe the best.
The great news is that you can choose to believe the best about your US.
