The Twenty Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He makes me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restores my soul: he leads me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anoint my head with oil; my cup runs over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Hymn of Celebration of Life “Because He Lives”

God sent His son, they called Him, Jesus;
He came to love, heal and forgive;
He lived and died to buy my pardon,
An empty grave is there to prove my Savior lives!

(Chorus)

Because He lives, I can face tomorrow,
Because He lives, all fear is gone;
Because I know He holds the future,
And life is worth the living, Just because He lives!

And then one day, I'll cross the river,
I'll fight life's final war with pain;
And then, as death gives way to victory,
I'll see the lights of glory and I'll know He lives! (Chorus)

Benediction & Blessing

Electa Jean Dean

Today we gather to celebrate the eternal life of Electa Jean Dean. On September 21, 2020, at the age of eighty-eight, Jean passed from this temporal home to her eternal heavenly home. Jean was born to the late Coble Ray and Mattie Genevieve Holland on October 23, 1931. Jean lived and worked in Clarksburg, WV for most of her adult life, and lived the last 20 years in Lillian Alabama.

Jean loved taking care of her family and helping those around her wherever the need. She loved her church and especially enjoyed working vacation bible school at her church in Lillian. She was also a member of several community outreach groups.

Jean was preceded in death by her husband, Romeo Dean. She is survived by daughter Pamela Hight (husband, Jim) and son John Dean (wife, Mary Jean), sister, Evelyn Duckworth, 4 grandchildren and 8 great grandchildren.

We have great joy that Jean has received the fulfillment of her faith, knowing that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord!
