- Knowing the God Who Is

How do we know God exists? Is being a Christian worth it? What is God like? Why do we suffer? Even if your students haven't asked these questions out loud, they are wrestling with putting into their own words what they believe. They want to know how to have a relationship with Christ that is authentic and deep. We'll take your students on a journey through Scripture to discover the truth about our awesome God—who he is and our relationship to him, his attributes, his names, and what that says about him.

- Understanding Loss and Sorrow

As Christians, we know our sorrows are to be transformed into something deeply and eternally good. But sometimes our loss is so great that our experience drowns out all truth and all hope. Yet through our suffering, God pours out his love in Christ Jesus. And in God's timing, he intends his love to overflow and spill into the lives of others through us. The comfort we receive from God helps us to comfort others (2 Corinthians 1:3–7). This study provides a biblical framework for understanding loss, and it will equip you to give wise help as you walk alongside others who are suffering and in sorrow.

- Galatians: Jesus + Nothing

The book of Galatians is one of the apostle Paul's most impassioned and eloquent letters. It warns Christians of the dangers of both legalism and lawlessness, while calling them to live lives that are shaped by the gospel. In this study, we will walk through the promises, warnings, and gospel declarations found in Galatians. Both accessible and theologically robust, this study will help us find freedom in our identity as God's adopted children.
