Message: The Easter Proclamation during the Vigil Mass begins with the following exhortation “Exult, let them exult, the host of heaven, exult, let angel ministers of God exult, let the trumpet of salvation sound aloud our mighty King’s triumph! Be glad, let the earth be glad as glory floods her, ablaze with light from her eternal King, let all corners of the earth be glad, knowing an end to gloom and darkness. Rejoice, let Mother Church also rejoice, arrayed with the lightning of his glory, let this holy building shake with joy, filled with the mighty voices of the peoples. While we go through a time of war in Ukraine and in the Middle East and while we fight our wars in our day-to-day life, the message of Easter for us is that Jesus has triumphed over sin and evil and so will we if we open our hearts to his Easter power. Pope St. John Paul II said, “We are Easter People.” Hence, every Good Friday in our lives can be turned into an Easter Sunday. In these challenging times, the message of Easter for us is that nothing can defeat us any more pain, not sorrow, not even death. The good news of Easter is that Jesus will work a miracle in our lives on this very day if we open our hearts to his Easter power. As the winter is fading and as the flowers are blooming on the trees, unfolding the beauty of the Spring, ask yourselves: “What miracle might I ask Jesus to work in my life in this Easter Season? What dark place in my life, should the Risen Lord cover with his flowers of Grace?” Happy Easter to all of you!
