

What Evidence Do We Have That The Bible Is The Word of God?

I. The Bible is the divine

_____ / _____ of God.

- A. The Old Testament clearly assumes this of itself.
- B. The New Testament assumes this of the Old Testament and of itself (2 Timothy 3:16-17, 2 Peter 3:15-16)
- C. The truth of scripture in our lives reveals itself to be divine.
- D. The fact that the Bible has many authors, but is unified and noncontradictory points to its divine origin.

II. The Bible is _____.

- A. The Bible clearly teaching that God does not lie, so the word of God cannot be false (Numbers 23:19 and 1 Samuel 15:29)
- B. The Bible can be true yet inexact.
- C. The Bible could have incorrect grammar in the original manuscripts and still be inerrant.

III. _____ every bit of Scripture.

What Evidence Do We Have That The Bible Is The Word of God?

I. The Bible is the divine

_____ / _____ of God.

- A. The Old Testament clearly assumes this of itself.
- B. The New Testament assumes this of the Old Testament and of itself (2 Timothy 3:16-17, 2 Peter 3:15-16)
- C. The truth of scripture in our lives reveals itself to be divine.
- D. The fact that the Bible has many authors, but is unified and noncontradictory points to its divine origin.

II. The Bible is _____.

- A. The Bible clearly teaching that God does not lie, so the word of God cannot be false (Numbers 23:19 and 1 Samuel 15:29)
- B. The Bible can be true yet inexact.
- C. The Bible could have incorrect grammar in the original manuscripts and still be inerrant.

III. _____ every bit of Scripture.