

Today, we join more than 4,000 churches from over 70 countries as part of the Global Hymn Sing. The Global Hymn Sing is a movement led by modern hymn writer, Keith Getty (“In Christ Alone”) and the missions organizations OMF International and the International Justice Mission inviting Christians around the world to join in singing a designated hymn on the last Sunday in February as a way of showing our unity as the Body of Christ.

This year’s designated hymn is our closing hymn, “Jesus Shall Reign.” To learn more, go to www.globalhymnsing.com

Online registration for both volunteers and kids will be available this week.

Add the dates to your calendar and register to join us!

The fourth Sunday of each month is “Giving for Haiti” Sunday.

If you'd like to give a special offering to be used for the 2018 Mission Trip to Haiti, you can use a pew envelope, write “2018 Haiti Mission Trip” on the envelope, and place it in the offering plate along with your regular offering. Your offerings for the mission trip are welcome any time; they are especially invited on the fourth Sunday of the month. Today is the fourth Sunday.
