

The Book of Acts ended at chapter 28 but the work of God through the church is still at work in the 21st Century. So, let God use you to transform your world one person at a time. The purpose of this series is to restore the passion for sharing our faith with the broken, hurting and seeking people in our lives like family, friends and coworkers that we see daily.

Study Guide 33 This study is broken down into daily assignments to help you grow deeper in the Word.

Consider using the Bible app, (Bible.is) on your cell to listen to the text before reading and answering the questions.

God's Mouthpiece to the Culture

Isaiah's Commission - Isaiah 6:1-13

The rest of this chapter deals with the message Isaiah was to preach to Judah. Significantly he was not called to service till he had been cleansed. After hearing the seraph's words (vv. 3, 7) he then heard the Lord's voice.

God asked, Whom shall I send? And who will go for Us? The word "Us" in reference to God hints at the Trinity (cf. "Us" in Gen. 1:26; 11:7). This doctrine, though not explicit in the Old Testament, is implicit for God is the same God in both Testaments.

The question "Who will go?" does not mean God did not know or that He only hoped someone would respond. He asked the question to give Isaiah, now cleansed, an opportunity for service. The prophet knew that the entire nation needed the same kind of awareness of God and cleansing of sin he had received. So he responded that he would willingly serve the Lord (Here am I).

It Open It Monday, let us discover ways to work through the issues of restoring passion to share by answering the questions each day.
