A 52-Week Journey Through the Bible

Soaring through the pages of the Bible and embarking on an inspiring weekly journey from Genesis to Revelation! Dive into transformative insights that will uplift your spirit and deepen your understanding. Experience the power of scripture like never before!

We understand that spiritual growth can be a deeply personal journey, and we invite you to join us as we explore a different book of the Bible each week. It's a wonderful opportunity to reflect and find inspiration together. We encourage you to invite a friend to join us, whether in person or online, so we can support each other on this meaningful path.

Background Matters

The apostle now turned to a presentation of the experiential results (suggested by the connective oun, trans. therefore) of the believers' justification—God's declaring them righteous—on the basis of faith (cf. 3:21–4:25). The participial clause since we have been justified (cf. 5:9) through faith describes antecedent action to the main clause, we have peace (echomen) with God. Some of the important Greek manuscripts read, "Let us have peace (echōmen) with God." This seems to be the preferred reading. If so, then the sense is, "Let us keep on having (in the sense of enjoying) peace with God." Peace has been made by God through our Lord Jesus Christ (cf. Eph. 2:14a), which fact is demonstrated by God's justification. A believer is not responsible for having peace in the sense of making it but in the sense of enjoying it.

5:2. The Lord Jesus, besides being the Agent of the believer's enjoyment of peace with God, is also the One through whom we have gained access (prosagōgēn, "privilege of approach" to a person of high rank; used elsewhere only in Eph. 2:18; 3:12) by faith into this grace in which we now stand. Though the phrase "by faith" is not supported by the best Greek manuscripts, it is the human means of the access. Believers in Christ stand in the sphere of God's grace (cf. "grace" in Rom. 3:24) because Christ has brought them to this position. He is their means of access.¹

In this week's Drone Series, we will focus on the Book of Romans, exploring the peace and joy available to us as we navigate our daily journey in a Spirit-filled life. The greatest conflict humanity faces is the war with God. However, through Christ, this war has ended, and true, sustainable peace is now available to every believer. Join us on this inspiring journey of empowerment as we rediscover the joy and peace that life in Christ can bring—experience transformation as you reclaim the happiness that awaits you. Let's dive into Romans chapter 5 together!
