FPC Update September 17th, 2025

Dear FPC Family,

As the leaves begin to hint at their changing colors and the air starts to feel just a bit crisper, I hope you're finding small moments to pause, breathe deeply, and notice God's presence in this shifting season.

This Sunday, we continue our series, Courageous Faith in Turbulent Times, with a powerful story from Daniel chapter 3. Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego face the fiery furnace—but not alone. This is a story about civil courage, spiritual conviction, and the God who meets us in the fire. You won't want to miss it.

Communion + Shared Lunch

Because it's the third Sunday of the month, we'll share Communion together during lunch following worship. Bring a dish to share with our friends from Gather Tacoma, or just come and enjoy the fellowship and food. There's always room at the table.

Memorial for Dorcas Gunovich

We will gather to remember and celebrate the life of our dear sister Dorcas Gunovich on Tuesday, October 7 at 3:30 PM, here at Fircrest Presbyterian Church. Please save the date and plan to attend this meaningful time of remembrance.

Women's Retreat | October 17–19

I'd love to invite you to join me for a Women's Retreat at Ingalls Creek this fall—a time to rest, connect, and be spiritually renewed. We'll enjoy conversation, laughter, and time in nature together.

Church in the Wild | Sunday, September 28 @ 12:30 PM

Mark your calendars and join Gather Tacoma for a special outdoor worship experience at Owen Beach in Point Defiance Park. "Church in the Wild" is an invitation to listen, look, and sense the movement of the Spirit through nature, scripture, and shared reflection. Bring a sack lunch, a chair or blanket, and come expecting beauty and connection.

Let's walk into this new week with open hearts, remembering that God meets us—not just in the calm—but even in the flames.

Warmly,

Pastor Taeler
