Summer is now 'officially' on us. Families are taking holiday time. Children and youth are going to camp. Missioners are on or gearing up for their adventures. Now, the outdoor temperature has hit 'summer mode' – HOT. The activity level of the church has shifted. We are still going and doing but in an entirely different manner than the 'usual' fall/spring schedule. In consultation with Shirley (Empress of the office) we have decided it would be expedient to begin sending via e-mail, 'weekly updates' to help keep you apprised of what is happening, where it is happening, and what time frame all of the happening stuff will occur. This will provide 3 (three) different avenues or mediums for you to check into and then participate in what is happening. Weekly e-mail, Sunday bulletin, and Sunday morning screen before and after worship. (Some of you tech savvy folks can also use snapbook, facechat, google eyes, tweetyness or whatever all that stuff is called to let friends and neighbors know what you and me and we all together are doing.) Blessed days.
