Call to Worship	Scripture Reading	Sermon Notes
Go Tell It on the Mountain	Romans 5:1–8 (CSB) 1 Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. 2 We have also obtained access through him by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we boast in the hope of the glory of God. 3 And not only that, but we also boast in our afflictions, because we know that affliction produces endurance, 4 endurance produces proven character, and proven character produces hope. 5 This hope will not disappoint us, because God’s love has been poured out in our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us. 6 For while we were still helpless, at the right time, Christ died for the ungodly. 7 For rarely will someone die for a just person—though for a good person perhaps someone might even dare to die. 8 But God proves his own love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.	Darkness in the Bible is symbolic of death and _____. Isaiah visualizes that the world is in darkness because it lacks shalom (or _____, wholeness, and flourishing) as evidenced by oppression and _____.
