

Prayer calendar for December- IMMSA

FRIDAY 01 December

Rev . E . Dube . they are having their last quarterly meeting at Westdriefontein from today until Sunday .

SATURDAY 02 December

We pray for Zimbabwe as they enter into a new era with their new president. We also pray for our brothers who are working in mining communities under rev. Chingovo

SUNDAY 03 December

The AEC Rustenburg is having their cluster today

Monday 04 December

Rev . F. Bodibe – their car is now ten years and is costing them with repairs

Tuesday 05 December

Since AEC planted a branch in Kanana in Gauteng . Elijah is expected every Sunday. We are praying for the pastor who will be leading this church

Wednesday 06 December

The small children (crech) in Ikageng are having their graduation today .

Thursday 07 December

We thank God for global mobilization network conference that took place on the last week of November. Pokkattu and Molly were part of it.

Friday 08 December

Manju and her husband are expectant parent. Expecting a baby on the 25th of December. Molly is joining them as they wait for the arrival of the baby

Saturday 09 December

Thokozani Dube is finishing his lobola payment today and he will be getting married on the 3rd of March next year. They have already started with their pre-marital counselling that will last for three months

Sunday 10 December

Lets pray Seelan and his family and the work he is doing for IMMSA, ECSA and in the Johannesburg metro

Monday 11 December

AEC Sheep gate is having Sunday school closing party. We thank God for Rev. Rodrigues who has been supporting this initiative since for the past two years

Tuesday 12 December

We pray for rev. Bodibe especially for his health challenges

Wednesday 13 December

In Freedom park, they have started small group that is in the informal settlement. They need both spiritual and numerical growth for this group for God's glory

Thursday 14 December

Pray for ECSA leadership through out South Africa

Friday 15 December

Rev. Seelan's parents are celebrating 50 years in marriage. They will be a celebration in kzn, we thank God for their lives.

Saturday 16 December

The AEC starts their annual church conference in Pretoria until the 20th. we pray for the safe journey for all those who will be driving from all over southern Africa

Sunday 17 December

We pray for all the pastors who will be speaking on the behalf of God that they may be mightily used to impact people's lives

Monday 18 December

Andrew is struggling with transport since the car he was using broke down. this is affecting him greatly in terms of running the ministry

Tuesday 19 December

We need God's protection for our youth, particularly as we are in the festive season. Hence, there are many temptations affecting our youth; they get to experiment with ungodly activities at this time of the year

Wednesday 20 December

Pray for Pokkattu as he is helping to resolve some leadership issues in the ECSA

Thursday 21 December

Today let us pray for the ruling party ANC as they are in a conference to choose their leadership. As this conference outcome has an answer of who might be the president of South Africa

Friday 22 December

Lets pray for mine workers who will be travelling to their homes . since its their last day of work for this year

Saturday 23 December

We thank God for all who are praying for IMM and its different committees.

Sunday 24 December

Today we lift our hand to voices to the Lord for the work that is done by IMM. We pray for all committees, workers and all the supporters

Monday 25 December

This is the day where Manju is due for delivery of her baby today

Tuesday 26 December

On recent months Elijah has been experiencing fatigue he really need a leave. He is really working hard in the AEC leadership and mine ministry and his health is not that good.

Wednesday 27 December

The youth of AEC Ikageng will be a five days open air in our community

Thursday 28 December

Lets pray for Moses in Boitekong as he moves around and minister in Sunrise and Ledig

Friday 29 December

We pray for Solly and his family in Sandfontein and the project of building a new house in Lerome

Saturday 30 December

For all the hard work that you put in for this year we say Eben-ezer

Sunday 31 December

As it is our tradition here all the churches will be praying tonight at midnight to ask God to lead us into a prosperous new year. May all our leaders be refreshed for the new year ahead