here, you are loved!

Hello Bethel family!

Valentine's Day is coming up in a couple of days. My kids have been excited to exchange Valentines candy at school. I enjoy seeing their excitement. Thoughts of love fill their growing minds. Their understanding of love is simple, pure, and innocent. As they get older, their perspective on love will change over time. I recognize that in my own life. I remember my dad sharing a great truth about love with me when I was younger. He told me that when you love someone you want what is best for them. It might be tough. It might bring heartache and pain. But when love is genuine...it always wants what is best for the other person. Love is willing to sacrifice for the sake of others.

As a follower of Christ, I see the Biblical wisdom in what my dad taught me. Sacrificial love (always wanting what is best for another) is the heart of the Gospel. Like my dad taught me...Jesus taught the same truth to His disciples in John 15:13, "greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends." Jesus didn't just teach it. He lived it!

I pray that my kids will grow to love others like Jesus did. I pray that I will love like Jesus. That is my prayer for you, as well. God, help us to love others in a Christ-honoring, Gospel-centered way!

Be sure to call me if you need me. I love you!
