

HAROLD'S COLUMN

What does a parent do when their child is afraid or in danger?

“He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son” Colossians 1:13 This is a great explanation of what God has done for us. Some translations use the word “rescued” instead of “delivered” but the root of that word is very interesting. It means “to draw to oneself”!

Once when my son Caleb was about 3 years old, we visited a farmhouse. As we approached the door, the owner, opened the door and a dachshund immediately rushed out and bit my son on the thigh. I saw it coming, but a bit late I tried to lift him above the dogs reach. I continued lifting him until I could wrap him in my arms -delivering him from the danger. What a good place it is - to be wrapped in the safety and security of our Father’s arms!
