God’s Helpers
~George W Wiseman

God could not be in every place
With loving hands to help erase
The teardrops from each baby’s face,
And so He thought of mother.

He could not send us here alone
And leave us to a fate unknown;
Without providing for His own,
The outstretched arms of mother.

God could not watch us night and day
And kneel beside our crib to pray,
Or kiss our little aches away;
And so He sent us mother.

And when our childhood days began,
He simply could not take command.
That’s why He placed our tiny hand
Securely into mother’s.

The days of youth slipped quickly by,
Life’s sun rose higher in the sky.
Full grown were we, yet ever nigh
To love us still, was mother.

God’s Masterpiece
~Herbert Farnham

God took the fragrance of a flower,
The majesty of a tree,
The gentleness of morning dew,
The calm of a quiet sea.

The beauty of the twilight hour,
The soul of a starry night,
The laughter of a rippling brook,
The grace of a bird in flight.

Then God fashioned from these things,
A creation like no other,
And when his masterpiece was through,
He called it simply - Mother.

In a few weeks United Methodists all over the place will be gathering for that venerable old institution, Annual Conference. Members of and delegates to the Texas Annual Conference will gather in downtown Houston for reports and worship and elections, some decision making and a lot of fellowship. It’s a far cry from what it was when I started in ’89, and light years different from its beginnings on the frontiers of this country over two hundred years ago.

Back then pastors served little bitty congregations scattered around the newly settled edges of the country. When opening worship began with “And Are We Yet Alive?” it was a real question!

One of the deep and lasting traditions was the reading of appointments on Thursday evening. The cabinet would have been meeting at night and the new appointments would be truly fresh and new. Pastors would hear their assignment for the first time at that sending forth service, go back to their “charge” and tell the folks, and then move the following week, starting their new “charge” the next Sunday! What a brutal way to treat folks!

All of that worked reasonably well because most pastors were pretty much interchangeable (they were all young, single men) and all the churches were little congregations out there in the woods, singing the same songs and talking the same language. You could move pastors every year or two and it didn’t seem to matter!

Well, now it matters! Churches are different, each one with its own history and traditions, hopes and struggles, personalities and saints and DNA. And pastors come in all flavors, too, all kinds of folks with all kinds of backgrounds, gifts and graces. Most of the time the system works reasonably well, but sometimes you get just the right match! I think that’s what’s in store for Highlands.

Kevin McMachen is coming to be your pastor the first of July. I’ve talked with him several times now, and I think he will be a great “fit.” He is a “second career” guy and that is a huge plus; he knows about life in the real world. He is a Walk to Emmaus guy (now active in leadership) and Emmaus is just part of who we are. He is a guitar player (among other instruments) and a praise team leader, and we’re looking for more of that in our worship. He is husband to Dawn (fifteen years), father to Lauren (24), Savanna (17) and Evan (14), and Lord knows we could use some young people around here! He is tech savvy and skilled in using 21st century communications. Did I mention that he loves the Lord? And, he is the sort of down to earth guy you’ll want to have in your church and your homes, the kind of guy you will want to get to know and work alongside.

Yep, I’m excited and I think you will be, too.

Blessings!

David

Happy Mother’s Day

To all mothers and to all women who love, or have loved, others
with a mothers heart.

“She is clothed with strength and dignity; she can laugh at the days
to come. She speaks with wisdom, and faithful instruction is on her tongue.” PROVERBS 31:25-26

Loving God,
we thank you for the love
of the mothers you have given us, whose love is so precious that it can never be measured, whose patience
seems to have no end.

We pray for those mothers
who fear they will run out of love or time, or patience.
We ask you to bless them
with your own special love.

Amen.

Congratulations

“For I know the plans I have for you,”
declares the Lord, “plans to prosper
you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.

The Founding Mothers of Mother’s Day

In the late 1860s, before there was an official Mother’s Day holiday in the U.S., a Methodist mom organized “Mothers’ Friendship Day,” at which mothers gathered with former Union and Confederate soldiers to promote reconciliation. We asked Harriet Olson, the current head of United Methodist Women, and Donna Miller, archivist at Historic St. George’s United Methodist Church, to tell us more about the women behind the holiday.

Harriet Olson, Chief Executive, United Methodist Women: “When Ann Jarvis was working to establish Mother’s Day as a national event, and when her daughter picked up the mantle from her, they were not thinking about greeting cards and flowers.”

Instead the Methodist women who invented the idea in America wanted to honor mothers in a deeper way.

Harriet Olson, Chief Executive, United Methodist Women: “They were thinking about the work of women and the significant testimony that women could give about the need for peace.”

Ann Reeves Jarvis organized women’s clubs in the 1860s to serve suffering mothers and children.

Harriet Olson: “Women came together with their sisters in their locations to respond to the needs that they could see. For Ann, she was in a coal mining part of what is now West Virginia. And she could see the needs of women and children. And she could see the effect of the economy of her day on the people that she cared for most directly.”

Donna Miller, Archivist, Historic St. George’s United Methodist Church: “She started mothers clubs. And she talked to them about hydration for fevered babies, about sanitation and nutrition. And then the Civil War came along and they put a field hospital right outside Grafton.”

Ann recruited nurses for military hospitals, and after the war formed friendship clubs to promote reconciliation.

Harriet Olson: “Ann Jarvis was convinced that mothers, women, but especially mothers, had to work for peace because they could see the ravages of war in their husbands and in their sons, in a way that was so focused and so clear that their voices would be powerful. And that’s what is the genesis of the current Mother’s Day.”

Faith was always foremost. When she was older, Ann Jarvis and her daughter Anna became members of Philadelphia’s St. George’s Methodist Episcopal Church.

Donna Miller: “Anna became a Sunday school teacher here at St. George’s. But she’s best known for the efforts she made to get Mother’s Day recognized as a national observance. She and John Wanamaker, who was a famous retailer here, are the ones that got Woodrow Wilson to sign the petition.”

Ann Jarvis died in 1905, before an official holiday was in place. But her daughter Anna (who was never a mother herself) stayed true to the purpose of the celebration. She envisioned Mother’s Day as a time to write a personal letter to your mother, a time to send her an inexpensive carnation (a flower in which the petals hold tight like a mother’s love) and a time to visit or attend church together. She later became an outspoken critic when the special day turned too commercial.

Donna Miller: “She was really aggravated at people that turned that observation into a commercial outlet. So she had to say to Hallmark. She had a lot to say to the Salvation Army that started selling carnations. When she made carnations the symbol of Mother’s Day they sold for pennies. But the price soon went up to $1.50, $2.00 apiece because people found they could make money off of it. And her comments about Hallmark are just wonderful. She said, ‘How lazy can you be to buy somebody else’s sentiments for your mother? One day out of the year sit down and tell your mother what you really think of her.’ And she was just furious. I like that kind of spunk. She would have been a really interesting person to know. And I like telling the kids about her because the history of the church isn’t a history of ministers. It’s the people that make up the church. And I think they’re such a wonderful example of that. And besides making kids think about their mothers is always a good thing to do.”

In May 1908, Anna Jarvis organized the first official Mother’s Day celebration at Andrews Methodist Episcopal Church in Grafton, West Virginia which is now the site of the International Mother’s Day Shrine. There was also a Mother’s Day event at one of Wanamaker’s retail stores in Philadelphia on the same day.

In 1914, President Woodrow Wilson signed a measure officially establishing the second Sunday in May as Mother’s Day in the USA. Others like Julia Ward Howe and Juliet Calhoun Blakely also advocated for a Mother’s Day type recognition in the U.S. in the late 19th century also.

Mother’s Day is celebrated in a variety of countries. In Thailand, Mother’s Day is celebrated in August on the birthday of the current queen, Sirikit. In Ethiopia, families gather each fall to sing songs and eat a large feast as part of Antrosht, a multi-day celebration honoring motherhood.

A Mother’s Prayer

Lord, give me strength just for today
To lead my children in your way.
Oh, give me wisdom, Lord, and grace
To show to them your precious face!

And help me, Lord, to teach them, too,
The things of Christ so rich and true,
Just let them see in me, dear Lord,
Your holiness in life and word.

Keep me from sinning with my tongue,
From harsh, quick words that might have stung
Their tender hearts that trust me so
And watch to see which way I go.

Dear Father, keep my thoughts so pure
That they will always know for sure
My Lord has lead me all the way,
Lord, grant my prayer just for today.

The church office is trying to update our records. If we have left your birthday or anniversary dates off of the newsletter please let us know.
Our holy and gracious God, help us to remember.
Help us to remember the sacrifices bravely made in which one has given life for another and for all.
Help us to remember those that stand in the breach where there is trouble and in which conflict threatens to undo your good creation.
Help us to remember that we look for the day when every sword will be replaced by a plow, that all may be fed and live in your peace.
Forgive us every sin that makes for division and for war, and bring us all into your kingdom on earth as in heaven.
This we pray in Jesus’ name. Amen.

How you can Help!

Monday Morning Methodists (MMM): Contacts the church secretary on Mondays and sends greeting cards to visitors and members, if needed.

Methodist Meals: Every other Saturday we cook lunch for around 40 community members who are shut-ins and deliver it to them with love. We need people willing to help cook or bring food. Even if you are busy on Saturdays, most meals have elements such as desserts and bread that can be dropped off at the church in advance. Just ask to be added to the Methodist Meals email list and every 2 weeks when the menu goes out you can see if there is anything on the list you can bring.

Rotary Meals Teams: Each week the Highlands Rotary Club meets in our Fellowship Hall. We cook lunch for them and they donate money to the church each week for use of the hall and for the meals. They usually start cooking around 9:00 am and are out of here by 1:30-2:00 pm. You do not have to be here that entire time to help. The teams alternate weeks and each team needs more help on Tuesdays. Speak to one of the leaders listed if you would like to join a team or even just help out from time to time. (Denny, Shirley Barnes, Patsy, Laura Pledger-Kiddo)

Lay Readers: Reads during the church service. This is not a rotating post, so try it out!

Ushers: Seats visitors, helps take the offering during the church service, counts the attendance. Fred Ketchem makes this list. No rotating schedule.

Alter Decorations:
Decorate the Sanctuary and alter for various themes as needed. Teams alternate months.

Joyful Noise and Nickel Strings Praise Team—You love to sing? You’re in luck! Joyful Noise Praise team is always looking for more people to join their music ministries. Contact Karen Chisholm

Prayer Warriors: The Prayer Warriors are a group of people who pray for others. When an emergency prayer request comes in to the church office (about twice a month) an email goes out to the Prayer Warriors for them to help pray for the people in need of prayer. Nothing else required, just a commitment to pray for others when you can.

Children’s Church and Sunday School: The young people are our future and those young minds need guidance, nurturing and of course FUN!!! Please contact Mary Ann Cobb to find out the best way to help the children!

If you would like be added to one of these volunteer positions, please contact the office, and we will make sure to get you set up. People get sick, go on vacations, or have business get in the way of helping sometimes, so the more we have on each list the better. Even if you just want to know what’s going on so you can help when you can, call the church office to be added to one of the mailing lists!
