THE NEWSLETTER OF PEACE LUTHERAN CHURCH—MENOMONIE, WI

November 2022

A Message from Pastor Bob

Trust in the LORD
with all your heart,
and do not lean
on your own understanding.

Proverbs 3:5

Dear Friends,

Thank you. Thank you for the five years we've spent together as a church family. Through the ups and downs, the joys and sorrows, one thing has remained constant: Christ's love for us all.

May we remain aware of how the Holy Spirit gives us the power to let that love direct our every thought, word, and action. May we also remain aware that Christ's commands to worship together, grow in knowledge of God's Word, and faithfully serve our congregation were given - not to make us holy - but to keep us faithful to the mission of spreading the Gospel.

As of late, prayer and honest conversation have led me to accept the fragility of life and given me the courage to make difficult decisions. Doing so has been both laborious and liberating. And it has led me to practice what I preach: Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding (Proverbs 3:5).

I will keep the people of Peace in prayer; please do the same for me. And may the peace of God that passes all human understanding keep our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

Love ya bunches. Always will.

Pastor Bob

PLCW THANKOFFERING SERVICE 2022

Sunday, November 20 at 9:00 a.m.

“With Our Whole Hearts
We Give You Thanks”

For more than 100 years, Lutheran women have carried out the tradition of collecting Thankofferings to give thanks for blessings in the ordinary and extraordinary moments of life. The Thankoffering service grounds this gratitude in a community of women, gathering together joyfully to give thanks and praise for what God has given them. They combine their offerings and offer them up to mission.

When the Women of the ELCA formed in 1987, they committed to continue this tradition of giving in gratitude for blessings. Each year in thousands of congregations, Thankofferings are collected to support the life-changing ministries of the churchwide women's organization.

All women who are members of Peace Lutheran Church are invited to place their Thankoffering envelopes in the special wicker offering basket, which will be passed around by the PLCW women during the Thankoffering services.

Our mission is to mobilize women to act boldly on their faith in Jesus Christ, and every expression of Women of the ELCA does that in many ways:

- ♦ Congregational units gather to study Scripture, make quilts, assemble layettes, school kits and so much more.
- ♦ Elected churchwide board representatives travel to synodical and ecumenical events.
- ♦ Staff members publish a wide array of free resources available on our website, womenoftheelca.org, as well as organize and offer workshops and trainings.
- ♦ Offer many communications ministries – Gather, Gather Bible Studies, Daily Grace, Cafe', Bold Connections, Interchange and others.
- ♦ Support advocacy for health and safety of women and children.
- ♦ Provide for racial justice programs.
- ♦ Deliver grants to domestic and international organizations and scholarships to Lutheran women.

Your Thankofferings support the total outreach of Women of the ELCA to live out its mission.

Together, we do more than we could ever do apart, in gratitude for all God has given us, and with hope for all that is to come.

Festival of All Saints Worship Services

The Festival of All Saints is the time when the church gives thanks to God for the lives of those who have died in the faith. It is a time to remember with fondness those most dear to us who have died, and to rejoice in God's promise to us all that we will share in the resurrection with them.

We hope you can join us at our worship service when we will remember your loved one by name in our prayers.

On Sunday, each family will receive a white rose at the conclusion of the service.

Peace,

A THANKOFFERING SERVICE FOR WOMEN OF THE ELCA 2022

"With Our Whole Hearts We Give You Thanks"

Sunday, November 20 at 9:00 a.m.

Thankofferings are a long-standing and spiritual practice among women of faith. We give in thanksgiving for blessings received—and we do receive so many blessings, don't we? The Women of the ELCA decided back in 1988 that Thankofferings are to support ongoing ministries of the churchwide women's organization. These include our many online and printed communications channels (such as the www.womenoftheelca.org website), our justice and advocacy work, training and development for elected leaders throughout the women's organization, our constant work in support of congregational and synodical women's organizations, the administration of our grants and scholarship programs, all that goes into our triennial convention, and so much more.

Many women set aside small amounts at home throughout the year and then bring together their gifts with those of other women in their circles or local groups at the end of the year. Others, like us, organize a Thankoffering service with the whole congregation, celebrating the ministries of women in a bold, exciting way. Our treasurer gathers up all the offerings given at the Thankoffering service and forwards the total amount to Women of the ELCA. Your Thankofferings support the total outreach of Women of the ELCA to live out its mission.

Thankoffering envelopes are available in the Narthex during the whole month of November and will also be handed out at the door before the church services. All women who are members of Peace Lutheran Church are invited to place their blue Thankoffering envelopes in the baskets, which will be passed around by the PLCW women during the Thankoffering services, followed by the regular offering plates passed around by the ushers. If you are unable to attend the Thankoffering Services in person, you can put the envelope in the drop-box in the door of the handicapped entrance or mail it to : Peace Lutheran Church, 917 7th St. Menomonie, WI 54751.

Liturgical art for worship

Conference on Worship, Theology, and the Arts

Scatter the Imagination of our Hearts

Stained glass at Word of Peace (Rogers, MN)

This past July, I (Jackie) had an opportunity to attend a conference at St. Olaf College. The intersection of worship, theology, and arts is about a perfect set of topics that I can imagine for the professional development of missionaries. At that point, I had just arrived in the U.S. and was still processing the rather hostile entry we had experienced as we encountered the customs and immigration agents in Seattle. The anxiety and malcontent of people was palpable and very unexpected. I can only imagine what it must be like for those entering the U.S. for the first time and whose “first impression” of Americans was at the border. Admittedly, I was pretty outraged at what I was witnessing.

As I listened to the presenters, however, I felt the Holy Spirit douse me with bucketsful of mercy and grace. I began to see the extent to which this country has experienced trauma and is just so exhausted. I only heard about it – I wasn’t here to feel it or have my eyes, ears, mind and heart assaulted daily with the unfolding suffering that is happening in both the larger American context and even within the communities of faith where we worship.

I was reminded of the Hebrew word for wilderness, which is “midbar.” It is a term derived from “davar” and “diber,” which refer to the spoken word or commandments. The “mi” prefix has a few meanings, but can refer to being “divided” or “separated from.” Certainly it is a fitting metaphor for today’s context to view these past couple of years as a wilderness, where we are increasingly divided, or even separated from both one another, and God at times.

While the idea of “wilderness” or a concept of “wild” (lawless disorder) is not particularly common in Japan, at least not like Americans typically understand “wilderness,” a closer metaphor would be those referencing the sea, such as the large wave depicted in the famous block print (image at the bottom). I imagine that many have seen this picture. It is recognizable and is often referred to as a picture of a Japanese tsunami.

Have you ever noticed that Mt. Fuji is right in the center of this image? Look closely and you’ll see it, far in the background. There are also three boats of people in the image, looking as though they might have their lives flashing before them. They are about to be crushed by this mighty wave of water that seeks to fall back into the sea from where it emerged. Probably all that the people see is the wall of water in front of them, churning and tossing them to and fro. If it were me, I probably wouldn’t notice the massive mountain, stable and unchanging on the safety of the shore.

As Christians, we are not immune to the fragile or tumultuous storms of life. We, like anyone, are often fixing our eyes on the big wave of scariness and instability that is right in front of us, instead of on the rock of ages, unchanging and unshakable that is right there on the horizon. The disciplines of joy and hope are not sentiments, based on our circumstances. They are, in the words of Rev. Willie Jennings, acts of resistance against despair. Joy and hope are both counter-intuitive forces, and Christ calls us to a countercultural life.
