▲ Dedication Prayer (United Methodist Church Discipleship Ministries)

Communion

ONE: Gracious Christ, we dream of community, but in our waking hours we forget our dreams. We call them "strange" and call our sisters and brothers "stranger." With arms outstretched, you call us each by name, invite us all to your table, and make us one with you. It is our choice to accept your invitation or not.

ALL: So now with our arms outstretched we reach back to you, embracing each other and our forgotten dreams.

ONE: Risen Christ, your bread and cup remind us of your sacrificial life. We hear your call to live with you in new life.

ALL: Holy Spirit, nourish us through this holy mystery, that as we gather round God's table and receive Christ's meal, we become one with you, one with each other, energized to serve your world. Amen.

Pastoral Prayer of Blessing

Anointing for Goodness and Mercy *Steve Close
Joanne Campbell*

Thou anointest my head with oil, from Psalm 23:5, speaks of God's goodness to those who belong to him. After you receive communion, you may also receive anointing if you wish as a sign of the promise of goodness and mercy in your life (Psalm 23:6). You may receive the anointing on the forehead or back of the hand. Unscented olive oil is used.
