10:30 AM Every Wednesday ZOOM Bible Study

The next Bible study is a book by Josh Scott called, "Cross-Examined". Here is its description from Amazon to those who may want to join this study at <https://a.co/d/ahrroCr>. Incisive responses to society's most pressing biblical questions.

Does the Bible really say that women shouldn't lead in the church or that the LGBTQ+ community can't be included in the church? Does the Bible support racism, white supremacy, and Christian nationalism? Do we have to choose between an understanding of the Bible that has been weaponized for harm and exclusion or not engaging the Bible at all? This book explores what the Bible is and what it does (and, maybe more importantly, doesn't) say about these important questions. The answers might surprise you.

Through thoughtful analysis and personal transformation, Josh Scott invites you to rethink dominant interpretations and uncover new possibilities for justice, inclusivity, and generosity in faith. Perfect for those seeking a deeper connection with their beliefs or grappling with these pressing issues, Cross-Examined serves as both a guide and a conversation starter. Open your heart and mind to an alternative understanding of faith, and join the movement toward a future of hope, justice, and unity.

Please call the church office to receive the Zoom link and contact Darci Strutt for additional information on the study.

Worship Update

By Adele Dolan, Worship Team Chair

Society says “Happy New Year” on January 1, but the church calendar is still in Christmastide, waiting for the Wise Men to meet Baby Jesus on Epiphany. Since other holiday tasks are more time-sensitive than cards, we often fail to send our family Christmas cards much before Epiphany, but appreciate folks who are more prompt! Last month when we received an early card from a dear friend who regularly includes original inspiring verses or words of encouragement with her family’s annual photo, I told her how much I looked forward to reading what she had written. She responded with, “This year, I have no words ...” My heart ached for her – and for many of us – as I understood that the many painful situations in our world had left her speechless and discouraged, even though she is a woman of deep faith and persistent prayer. At the same time, I know her life is full, she spreads goodness and love daily, and she has faith that she will once again find words to enrich her life and the lives of others.

As you all know well by now, I appreciate the value and power of words. The church focuses on meaningful, encouraging words every time we gather for worship – Hope, Peace, Joy and Love, to name a few you might remember! The deep meanings incorporated in these words provide a firm foundation for another essential word: Faith. Even when events are unexpected or unwanted, when hope, peace, joy and love seem absent, faith in God’s presence through the Holy Spirit, and promises through Jesus Christ, speaks to the triumph of justice, righteousness and life even in the midst of chaos. And putting words to music during worship helps embed them even deeper into our souls:

“Sing them over again to me, Wonderful words of life; Let me more of their beauty see, Wonderful words of life ...”

Happy Epiphany and Happy New Year! Sing and live those Wonderful Words!

Sincerely in Christ, Adele Dolan, Worship Team Chair

A NEW YEAR PRAYER submitted by Deb England

God, grant us the grace
as another year starts to use all the hours of our days,
Not for our own selfish interests
and our own willful, often-wrong ways –
But teach us to take time for Praying
and to find time for Listening to You
So each day is spent well and wisely doing
What You Most Want Us To Do.

Helen Steiner Rice
