March Mission of the Month:
United Methodist Church General
Board of Global Ministries
(UMCOR)

The King

Sometimes we speak or shout the truth without realizing just how right we are. That happened during Holy Week, first when Jesus rode into Jerusalem on a donkey. The palm-waving crowd hailed Jesus as their King-though he wasn't the earthly king they wanted.

Days later, during Jesus' trial, Pilate taunted the Pharisees, saying, "Here is your King." Furious, they protested, "We have no king but Caesar." Pilate turned Jesus over to them. But still wanting to needle the insistent persecutors, he wrote a sign reading, "The King of the Jews" and had it fastened above Jesus' cross (John 19:19)

Was Jesus a king? Witnesses of the Resurrection thought so. The first Christians were accused of "saying there is another King, Jesus" (Acts 7:17). The writer of Revelation envisions the day when the whole world will understand that the risen Christ isn't only Lord and Savior but also

"Lord of lords and King of Kings." (Revelation 17:14)

Holy Week & Easter Schedule

March 29 Palm Sunday: Follow Jesus into Jerusalem and worship together at 8:30 or 10:30 am in the Sanctuary; 10:30 am live streaming worship service.

April 2 Maundy Thursday: You are invited to remember the Last Supper with communion at 7 pm in the Sanctuary.

April 3 Good Friday: Gather together to observe the crucifixion and sacrifice of Jesus at 7 pm in the Sanctuary.

April 5 Easter Sunday: He has Risen! Let us celebrate! Services available at 8:30 or 10:30 am in the Sanctuary; 10:30 am live streaming worship service.

9 AM Monday, March 2 SEWMUCHNEED Hudson United Methodist Sewing Missions Ministry

By Connie Nielsen

SEW MUCH NEED met on Monday, February 2nd. We discussed if we should use flannel or switch to cotton material on our projects. We are sticking to flannel material and will also use cotton material. We have been lucky that Clarice has gotten us good deals on flannel.

Clarice Huehne delivered the hats which Judy Gilbert made for the elementary schools. The total were 70 hats. Thanks Judy

Nancy Briske talked to WIC and they can always use larger hats to give to people in need.

We still deliver receiving blankets and quilts to the Hudson Hospital.

If anyone has any items for us to make and deliver locally let either Connie Nielsen or Clarice Huehne.

Our next meeting is on Monday, March 2nd from 9 am to 12 noon.

If you have a schedule conflict and unable to attend SEWMUCHNEED, we have take-home packets to be sewn. The take-home packets are located across from the kitchen on the tables between the two restrooms. Questions contact Connie Nielsen or Clarice Huehne.

Hudson Food Cupboard Update

By Denise Stalker

As you sit down for Dinner, please say a prayer for all of the people that rely on the Hudson Food Cupboard for their next meal. As you do your grocery shopping, consider putting a couple extra items in your cart to donate to the Hudson Food Cupboard. You can drop them off in the box outside the sanctuary doors, and someone will deliver it for you. THANK YOU!!

Missions Update

March Mission of the Month

The March Mission of the Month (MOM) noisy can offering will be donated to UMCOR. UMCOR serves as a “voice of conscience among Methodists to act in the relief of human suffering, without distinction of race, color, or creed.” So said Bishop Herbert Welch at the General Conference in 1940, when UMCOR’s forerunner, the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief (MCOR) was started. The goal, then, was to respond to suffering among people overseas after the onset of World War II.

Although the committee was supposed to be temporary, General Conference, the church’s legislative body, re-approved its work every four years. In 1972, the committee was made a permanent part of the General Board of Global Ministries and renamed it the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR). A structure was formalized and the committee’s scope expanded to include disaster relief in the United States.

Since then, UMCOR has helped survivors of earthquakes in Nicaragua, famine in Africa, and tornadoes, floods, and hurricanes in the United States. As countries such as Liberia, Rwanda, and Bosnia experienced civil strife, UMCOR was there to help affected communities rebuild homes and lives. We provided communities with training and education to help them confront hunger and poverty.

For additional reading on the history of UMCOR, please see Love in Action, by Norma Kehrberg, Abington Press, 1989. Learn about the work we're currently doing through the weekly UMCOR Hotline.

Hello!

Wow!! Thank you so much for all the items donated in the months of January and February. There were only a few items that had to be purchased for the February delivery. Please remember, you do not have to get everything on the list. Just get what you can! I’ve been told that juice boxes are one of the favorite items and they’re the first to go. Deliveries to the high school will continue until the end of the school year. On a table in the narthex, there are lists and bags for you to use to get the supplies. You will also find the list below.

As always, thank you very much!

Worship Update

By Adele Dolan, Worship Team Chair

"Tell me something good ..."

The theme for this year's Lenten worship series pleads for "something" good.

As Christians, we know that the Gospel is more than a nebulous "something", but rather the incomparable Good News of Jesus, his ministry, his sacrifice on our behalf, and the gift of life, love, forgiveness and grace that it embodies. Talk about the ultimate answer to a plea! At the same time, recent months have broadcast difficulty, sorrow, and injustice so loudly that the Good News we so desperately need has too often been drowned out.

Now that you and I have begun another Lenten journey, celebrating Jesus' final weeks of ministry on earth, perhaps we can find more motivation than ever to pursue and revitalize what is Good as we "take up our cross" on Jesus' behalf. We can give up something we really like, or take on a new act of service specifically representative of commitment to our faith.

Here in Hudson, most of us can choose to do without; residents in other areas, both near and far, do without because they must. We can choose to devote time and energy to ministries that help nourish hungry bodies and souls; others must put all their energy into getting through the day. What better news for our community and our nation than to relieve ourselves of overabundance in order to help someone else survive.

I'm pondering what Lenten good I am called to proclaim to others this year. How about you? Are you able to share in a way that lifts some of the burden of those whose lives have been so painfully disrupted, even though it brings you a bit of discomfort? To give to or pray for the least or the lost is to give of ourselves to the Lord. No matter how God leads us to use our gifts, I pray we will make this season of Lent a holy time of dedication to telling something good to those in need of encouragement.
