Scripture Reading Psalm 116 Liturgist & Congregation

Liturgist: I am filled with love, for the Lord hears me,

All: for the Lord bends to my voice whenever I call.

Liturgist: God is gracious. God is the one who makes things right.

All: God takes the side of the helpless. God has rescued me.

Liturgist: Kind and faithful is the Lord. Gentle is our God.

Psalm 116 continued

All: The Lord shelters the poor.

The Lord raises me from the dust.

Liturgist: I live in the presence of the Lord. I am alive in the land of the living.

All: I believe, even as I say, "I am afflicted."

I have kept my faith, even though I scream.

Liturgist: What gift can I give back to God for the blessings that He has poured out upon me?

All: I raise the cup of freedom as a toast to God.

I pray in the name of the Lord.

I do as I have promised God.

Liturgist: Lord, you hate to see your faithful ones die.

When they arrive at the gates of death, you welcome them.

You welcome those who love you.

All: I am your servant; set me free for your service.

I bring you this gift of thanks and pray in your name.

Liturgist: Praise God. Applaud God, all people.

All: God's faithful ways are eternal.

Hallelujah. Hallelujah.
