Call to Worship

First Reading John 12:1-17, 31-35

Prayer of Confession

All: Eternal God, whose covenant with us is never broken, we confess that we fail to fulfill your will. Though you have bound yourself to us, we will not bind ourselves to you. In Jesus Christ you serve us freely, but we refuse your love and withhold ourselves from others. We do not love you fully or love one another as you command. In your mercy, forgive and cleanse us. Lead us once again to your table and unite us to Christ, who is the bread of life and the vine from which we grow in grace.

Declaration of Pardon

You may, if you wish, come forward to touch the water. Remember that Jesus has claimed you in baptism, and by his death washed you of all unrighteousness as he washed his disciples.

Invitation to the Table

The Great Thanksgiving

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

One: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them up to the Lord.

One: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

One: It is truly right to give our thanks and praise...who forever sing to the glory of your name:

All: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

One: You are holy, O God of Majesty, and blessed is Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord...With Thanksgiving, we offer our very selves to you to be a living and holy sacrifice, dedicated to your service.

One: Great is the mystery of faith:

All: Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

Communion

Communion will be by intinction. Please come forward, as you are able, for the elements. We will gather around the table in small groups to be served. If you are unable to come forward, communion will be brought to you.

Stripping of the Sanctuary

In silence, we watch as signs of Jesus are removed from the sanctuary. We do this remembering how Jesus was abandoned by his friends, and left without authority or hope in his last hours.

We leave in silence.
