Thanksgiving 2018

Thanksgiving Day should bring to mind the Pilgrims' first observance of what has become a national holiday. But do we really understand the most basic reason for their thanks to God? The historical records of the Pilgrims show that probably the greatest reason they had to give thanks was that they had survived. They were thankful for life itself.

By their first autumn in the New World, only 55 of the original 100 or more Pilgrims were still alive. Every Pilgrim family except one had seen at least one family member die due to sickness and starvation. By the autumn of 1621, despite heart wrenching losses, the Pilgrims at Plymouth Colony had seen God's hand of provision. One of the greatest evidences of God's care was Squanto, an English-speaking native American and believer in Christ who joined himself to the community. Not only did he serve as the Pilgrims' interpreter and negotiator with surrounding tribes, but he also taught the colonists how to fish, hunt, and plant the life-sustaining corn that would help to keep the colonists from starvation.

As they gathered the first Thanksgiving day, little did they know of the significance of their survival-for had they perished, so would their legacy of faith, hope, and freedom for America.

*"Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good; His love endures forever." Psalm 106:1
Have a blessed Thanksgiving!*

What "outer circumstances" do I need to look past today?

Withdraw your attention from the outer circumstance and lost yourself, My child, in the free-flowing stream of the Spirit.

COME, YE THANKFUL PEOPLE, COME

Come, ye thankful people, come,
Raise the song of harvest home;
All is safely gathered in, ere the winter storms begin.
God our Make doth provide for our wants to be supplied;
Come to God's own temple, come,
raise the song of harvest home.

From Come, Ye Thankful People, Come by Henry Alford 1844
"For You O Lord, have made me glad by Your work; at the works of your hands I sing for joy." Psalm 92:4 NRSV

THE SINGING HEART

Patience, My child, will manifest where hope is nurtured. The singing heart is blind to obstacles and recognizes in all things the loving hand of an all-wise Father. In such a state, delays are unnoticed, for the Spirit is not bound by the limitations of outer circumstances. The power of evil to destroy joy is nullified when Christ Himself becomes the one point of attention. In Him all things are possessed now for faith beholds that which is yet to be as though it were already a reality.
