

Current Prayer Concerns for January 25, 2026

Brooks Haworth (hospitalized at Wesley Long following a hard fall and experiencing shortness of breath); Chuck Royster (recovery from back surgery and pain); Beth McLean's uncle (upcoming heart surgery); the family of Gregory Walker (cousin of Lucille Samuel), on his passing, especially his wife, Terry, and their children; the family of Charles Paul (grandfather of James Paul), on his unexpected passing shortly before Christmas; the family of Larry Hunt, uncle of Allison Martin, who passed away December 15 due to heart failure, following a brief hospitalization; Tommy Bailess (son of Chip and Anne Bailess; ongoing health concerns); Lauren Petersen's cousins Michelle and Samuel (cancer); Emily Brame (prayers for God's care and keeping during her ongoing treatments); Karen Mashburn; students, teachers, and administrators; leaders and government officials; prayers for justice and peace in the world, particularly at home and in Ukraine.

A prayer:

Gracious God, as the winter storm approaches, we place ourselves and our community in your care. Watch over us all, especially those who find themselves in need of shelter, warmth, or power, and those who must travel or work in difficult conditions. We pray especially for essential workers, utility crews, health-care providers, first responders, and other emergency personnel; protect them as they serve others. Prompt us to check on one another, especially those we know to be vulnerable, and to share what we have. Calm our fears and remind us that even in the worst of conditions, we are never beyond your loving care. Be our shelter and hope in the coming days and carry us through whatever lies ahead.

We remember the words of the psalmist: "The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?" At this time, let us amend that to, "whom or what."

If you would like your prayer request printed in the list of weekly Concerns or emailed to the congregation, please email Pastor Barbara (pastor@greensboromoravian.org) and copy the church office (office@greensboromoravian.org).

Current Prayer Concerns for January 25, 2026

Brooks Haworth (hospitalized at Wesley Long following a hard fall and experiencing shortness of breath); Chuck Royster (recovery from back surgery and pain); Beth McLean's uncle (upcoming heart surgery); the family of Gregory Walker (cousin of Lucille Samuel), on his passing, especially his wife, Terry, and their children; the family of Charles Paul (grandfather of James Paul), on his unexpected passing shortly before Christmas; the family of Larry Hunt, uncle of Allison Martin, who passed away December 15 due to heart failure, following a brief hospitalization; Tommy Bailess (son of Chip and Anne Bailess; ongoing health concerns); Lauren Petersen's cousins Michelle and Samuel (cancer); Emily Brame (prayers for God's care and keeping during her ongoing treatments); Karen Mashburn; students, teachers, and administrators; leaders and government officials; prayers for justice and peace in the world, particularly at home and in Ukraine.

A prayer:

Gracious God, as the winter storm approaches, we place ourselves and our community in your care. Watch over us all, especially those who find themselves in need of shelter, warmth, or power, and those who must travel or work in difficult conditions. We pray especially for essential workers, utility crews, health-care providers, first responders, and other emergency personnel; protect them as they serve others. Prompt us to check on one another, especially those we know to be vulnerable, and to share what we have. Calm our fears and remind us that even in the worst of conditions, we are never beyond your loving care. Be our shelter and hope in the coming days and carry us through whatever lies ahead.

We remember the words of the psalmist: "The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?" At this time, let us amend that to, "whom or what."

If you would like your prayer request printed in the list of weekly Concerns or emailed to the congregation, please email Pastor Barbara (pastor@greensboromoravian.org) and copy the church office (office@greensboromoravian.org).

