

Lunch & Learn #1: What is Biblical Marriage? Sunday, April 19

Old Fellowship Hall
Immediately following worship

Each session will begin with lunch and a video, followed by a brief period of small group discussion specifically about the video.

The film features two Moravian pastors with different views talking about Biblical marriage. The Rev. Dr. Margaret Leinbach and the Rev. Tim Sapp talk about how their views differ, as well as areas of agreement.

Congregation members will be invited to share their thoughts with the Conversations Committee (Donna Royster, Vince Holbrook, Libby McCandless, and Beth Smith) following the second video about additional opportunities for conversations and what they should be like.

Lunch & Learn #2 Biblical Interpretation Sunday, April 26 Old Fellowship Hall Immediately following worship

Each session will begin with lunch and a video, followed by a brief period of small group discussion specifically about the video.

The film features the Rt. Rev. Sam Gray explaining the Guidelines for Biblical Interpretation. Synod delegates and higher-level church leaders are asked to observe these guidelines. Interpretation is something we do together, with guidance from both the written word and the living Word.

Congregation members will be invited to share their thoughts with the Conversations Committee (Donna Royster, Vince Holbrook, Libby McCandless, and Beth Smith) following the second video about additional opportunities for conversations and what they should be like.

