Hello everyone,

Hope you are having a good weekend. My week has been good and today we made our weekly trip out to get groceries and supplies. Heather and the kids are doing well. I have been working around the house, watching lots of Netflix, and cooking way more. I have been working on a 2,000 piece puzzle of The Last Supper, so this is a great thing for me. I really love to do puzzles. When the weather is decent we will get outside in the yard. Some of the time doing yard work, & the other times just playing. We have gone on walks in the neighborhood and I really enjoyed those. I am now working full time from home until further notice. Heather's work has stopped for now. The kids are doing home school and this next week is spring break for them. We had originally planned to make a trip to Minnesota to visit family. That is now on hold and we will have to reschedule. I have found some days to be difficult, but being grateful and remembering what the Lord has done for me keeps me grounded. I feel blessed for everything I have and praise God for that!

The LORD is my strong defender; he is the one who has saved me. He is my God, and I will praise him, my father's God, and I will sing about his greatness. (Exodus 15:2)

We will have an online meeting for those who want to join Sunday at 9:30am. Youth have your Bible, some paper, and a writing utensil.
