The All People's Pantry, founded in 2022, provides culturally appropriate foods to the greater Omaha-Council Bluffs area intercultural community. In the past year, we have served over 2,880 individuals from 35 different countries of origin living in 38 different area zip codes. Your support impacts the lives of migrants and refugees, providing not only food but also creating a warm space where diverse cultures feel comfortable, safe, and supported. The All People's Pantry is changing lives and helping make our area a better place.
