

Master Resale Rights Terms and Conditions And Instructions for Setting up Your Reseller Site

Dear Friend,

Thank you for ordering a Master Resale Rights
License to Email Writing Secrets.

You're welcome to use this website and resell this product as is, however keep in mind that there are other resellers offering this same product. To make your website stand out consider re-working the sales letter or have your own custom graphics made.

The only terms we are placing on this reseller license are:

1. Do NOT give this product away for free.
2. The READ-ME.pdf file that you are reading right now MUST be passed on in-tact to anyone that you sell a reseller license to.

That's it – 2 simple rules. Please do not break the rules and ruin the fun and profit potential for everyone else.

Getting Started:

To rebrand this website open it with your favorite HTML editor and change the pink text that says YOUR NAME HERE to whatever your name actually is. Also change the text color from pink back to black.

If you don't have an HTML editor, you can get a free on here.

Also be sure to add your support email address or a link to your support desk if you have one to the download pages.

Be sure to edit all of the hot pink text, leaving any of this text as it is will give your site an amateurish look, so be sure not to miss any of this text.

Important: Don't forget to hook up the download and purchase buttons to your payment processor on the index.html page and that have your payment processor return your buyers to the proper thank you page.

<http://www.yourdomain.com/thankyou.html>

Change yourdomain to whatever your domain actually is.

Leave all the files and page names as they are so the site and all the downloads will work properly.

Upload all files and folders to your web server.

Best of luck,
