

State	Program Name	Incentive brief	Incentive value
California	Self Generation Incentive Program (SGIP) run by PG&E, SDG, CSE & SCE utility	Installed energy storage system is awarded incentive at a fixed rate $/kWh depending on the application category and current budget step. More details below.	With Encharge units you can get an incentive upto $38820
Hawaii	Smart Export program of HECO utility	Incentive is awarded for exporting power from installed energy storage unit to the grid at fixed times in the day. Eg: in Oahu between 4PM-12AM.	With Encharge, you can get up to $0.1497/kWh (units) exported to grid.
Florida	JEA utility battery incentive	One-time incentive for installing energy storage system of capacity more than 6kWh, having 10years warranty or 5000 cycles.	With Encharge-10 you can get incentive of $4000.
Arizona	SRP utility battery incentive	One-time incentive for installing energy storage at the rate $300/kWh capacity of storage installed, upto maximum $3600	With Encharge you can get incentive upto $3600
Texas	City of Denton utility Greensense incentive	For installing energy storage along with PV system,	With 7kW solar PV and Encharge you can get an incentive upto $7800
Maryland	State tax credit of 30%	Tax credit of upto 30% of the cost of energy storage system installed.	With Encharge you get state tax credit of upto $5000