ENGAGE STUDENTS OF TODAY, INSPIRE CITIZENS OF TOMORROW

McGraw-Hill Networks™ is a dynamic student-centered program that helps teachers prepare students to be successful in college, careers, and civic life.

EXPLORE MORE
Rigorous, age-appropriate content highlights diverse perspectives, integrates primary sources, and makes relevant connections to bring the subject area to life.

DISCOVER MORE
Inquiry activities ignite curiosity and facilitate critical thinking, teaching students how to analyze sources, cite evidence, and take informed action.

DO MORE
Customizable lesson plans and classroom management tools save time, while point-of-use differentiation strategies and authentic ELL support meet every student where they are.

INSPIRE ACTIVE CITIZENSHIP
Stimulate collaboration, problem solving, debate, action, and draw connections to today. By demonstrating relevancy, students realize they have the power to shape the world around them.
TEACH YOUR WAY

Networks enables flexible pathways for teaching and learning. Planning guides offer a custom path to use the resources – print, digital, inquiry, or project-based - so you can teach your way.

TEACHER-DIRECTED PATH
The teacher-directed pathway supports teachers by providing interactive, differentiated activities and a linear path through the content. Assessments wrap-up the lessons and chapters in this traditional path.

INQUIRY PATH
The student-centered inquiry pathway encourages students to engage with the essential question by analyzing primary sources, reporting findings, and taking action.

PROJECT PATH
The student-centered project pathway encourages students to engage with the essential question by creating a product or project, often developing the skills of collaboration and teamwork.
Numerous primary and secondary sources and DBQs allow you to develop what you learn into practice.
