

November 2019 | Issue 3

Wishing you and your families a wonderful Thanksgiving!

Welcome New Member Schools!

Please extend a warm welcome to our newest member colleges. Learn more.

SARAH
LAWRENCE
COLLEGE

edHEALTH Plan Administrators Changing Their Names in 2020

Learn more.

Interested in Learning More About edHEALTH?

The ABCs of Captive Insurance

Twenty-two colleges, universities, and educational institutions own Educators Health, LLC (edHEALTH), a healthcare collaborative formed to address rising healthcare costs that were straining school budgets. By bypassing commercial insurers and pooling resources, edHEALTH leverages the combined schools' purchasing power, thereby saving on healthcare costs for faculty, staff, and family members. But, did you know that edHEALTH's wholly-owned subsidiary, Educators Health Insurance Exchange, is a group captive insurer? Learn More

Learn
More

How edHEALTH's Captive Risk Financing Options Work

Under edHEALTH's captive, member

Contact Us

organizations pick their own self-insured retention rate based on their risk tolerance, philosophy, financial status, and experience. Learn more.

Population Health Program Tackles High-Cost Claims and Gaps in Care

In support of our goals of providing quality healthcare solutions at affordable costs, edHEALTH launched an innovative population health program in the spring. Did you know that 50% of edHEALTH's claims come from just 5% of the population?

LEARN MORE

edHEALTH Newsletter Editor, Cindy McGrath | Website

Please add info@educatorshealth.org to your contacts so we're recognized as a safe sender.