

Hard biological race concept

Race recognized by series of correlated genetic & phenotypic properties

Assumption: various traits travel together

No possibility of intermediates

There are archetypes (at least three – Asian, African, European)

Biology is determinative of intellectual, social, & moral characteristics

Admixture weakens pure types

There may be hierarchies

Ancestral kinds or types are more primitive

Changes are always additive & beneficial