PINOT NOIR
RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY

94 JEB DUNNUCK

The 2019 Pinot Noir Russian River Valley is pure and ripe with raspberry liqueur, fresh violets, and elegant wood spice. The palate has a weightless feel, with elegant structure and fully ripe tannins, fresh red fruit, and a floral lift. Drink it over the next 6-8 years.

The 2019 Pinot Noir is silky, elegant and refined right out of the gate. The 2019 impresses with its total finesse. Crushed flowers, sweet red berry fruit, mint spice and blood orange build effortlessly in the glass. The 2019 is simply impeccable, and a real joy to taste.

– Antonio Galloni, June 2022

★★★★★ RESTAURANT WINE

A remarkable wine, the 2019 Pinot Noir is Burgundy-like (in a top vintage): velvety in texture, medium rich in flavor (black cherry, red currant, plum, black tea, nutmeg, toast, spicy oak), and wellbalanced, wine a long, vibrant palate evolution, and a very persistent finish. Still quite young; likely at its best after 2023.
