JEB DUNNUCK

Layered and refined on the nose, with notes of black raspberries, violets, dark mineral earth, and sweet cardamom spice. The palate boasts a luxurious silky and velvety texture that's completely seamless, with a long, outstanding finish.

Antonio Galloni
vinous

Plump and juicy but not at all heavy, the 2021 is wonderfully classy from start to finish. Succulent dark red cherry, pomegranate, blood orange, and a kiss of new French oak race across the palate. Silky tannins and bright acids frame the long, persistent finish nicely.
