

2019 Ernest Vineyards Chardonnay
Joyce Vineyard

Also from the Sonoma Coast, the 2019 Chardonnay Joyce Vineyard shows a similar lighter gold hue to go with gorgeous Meyer lemon, orange blossom, honeysuckle, mint, and salty mineral-like aromas and flavors. This medium-bodied beauty is nicely textured, has impeccable balance, a bright spine of acidity, and outstanding length, all making for a classic Sonoma Coast Chardonnay that will benefit from a year in bottle and keep through 2029.
