

Valentine's Day Gift Guide: Big Reds For Big Hearts

Jeanette Hurt - February 7, 2023

If your significant other has a big heart, then maybe you'll want to choose a wine to match.

Big hearts deserve to be toasted with big reds. Here's a roundup of red wines that have the depth to match the deep love you'll be celebrating this Valentine's Day.

This 2019 vintage offers layers of complexity and beauty.

Larkmead Vineyards Cabernet Sauvignon, $125

This classically styled Cabernet hails from a storied Napa Valley estate winery. Aged for 18 months, this plush and rich wine is best served slowly - decant it for a couple of hours to best enjoy it. It's phenomenal with steak, and its layers of complexity are best enjoyed in good company this Valentine's Day.
