

Holiday Shopping Got You Down? This Gift Guide for the Wine Lover in Your Life is Here to Help

Devin Parr - December 18, 2023

If you're anything like me, chances are, right now, you're randomly clicking between professional emails, bank accounts, and Amazon, trying to balance work, checkbooks, and holiday shopping like a pro, while, in reality, conquering none of it.

Stop doing that. We at The Vintner Project are here to help you knock off the most important (and likely most stressful) to-do on your to-do list right now – holiday shopping. In our ultra-curated gift guide, we have combed the world for some of the best, most fun, most unique items for quite literally anyone and everyone on your list. Rest assured, it's not all wine! We've got doodads, and trimmings, and drinks-adjacent things for all. Everything here is available online, so you don't even have to change out of that Snuggie. Pour yourself a glass, throw on some Michael Bublé, and get to clicking!

For someone who needs their cellar restocked with nothing but fancy wines

Larkmead Solari Estate Cabernet Sauvignon, $200

The flagship Cab from one of Napa's most historic estates. This top-scoring wine has been applauded for its incredible balance and purity – and with good reason.
