

Cozy Destinations for Fireside Wine Tasting

by Laura Ness - February 2024

Baby, it's cold outside, so why not sit by the fire and enjoy a wine tasting indoors? Or, bundle up and enjoy the nip in the air by an outside firepit. Red wine tastes so much better when the weather is chilly, so now's the time to indulge in a rich cabernet blend, a righteously spiced cherry-infused merlot, or perhaps a dark and fruity zinfandel with a classic peppery finish, or a meaty, enveloping syrah.

At Larkmead Vineyards, one of Napa Valley's most historic estates, there are two fireplaces in the main tasting room. One is located inside, creating a cozy atmosphere for warm, fireside wine tastings, while the other sits on the stunning side porch overlooking the estate.
