

The Ultimate Mother's Day Wine Gift Guide

March 30, 2026 - By Kimberly Fisher

For the woman who has impeccable taste, who appreciates the nuance of a well-aged vintage, this year's gift demands a bottle with provenance, power, and personality. We've curated a selection of Napa and Sonoma's finest in this Mother's Day gift guide to ensure this Mother's Day is remembered long after the last sip.

The Icon: Larkmead

For the mom who appreciates history intertwined with innovation, look no further than Larkmead. As one of Napa Valley's most historic estates (founded in 1895), Larkmead represents the pinnacle of Calistoga elegance. Their wines are benchmarks of structure and finesse. While they are known for their estate-grown Cabernets, their blending prowess is on full display in the 2023 Firebelle Red Blend. It is a sophisticated, opulent choice that mirrors the strength and complexity of a matriarch. $100