14 wonderful ways to sip this season

November 8, 2026 - By Alison Bailin Batz

Thanksgiving may be all about the turkey and trimmings, but there is plenty of room at the table for a great glass of wine. From festive bubbles and bold reds to bottles worthy of gifting, gathering or simply giving thanks, these wines offer 14 delicious reasons to raise a glass this fall.

Baldacci Family Vineyards 2022 Brenda's Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon
Named for co-founder Brenda Baldacci, this limited-production Cabernet from the family's Stags Leap District estate combines blackberry, black currant, plum, sage and cocoa. Boysenberry, dark chocolate and clove follow on the palate, backed by refined tannins and plenty of character from one of Napa Valley's most famous wine-growing regions. $250
