2016 PAUL HOBBS PINOT NOIR, KATHERINE LINDSAY ESTATE, RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY

99 POINTS

“The crème of the crop is the 2016 Pinot Noir Katherine Lindsay Estate, a truly extraordinary Pinot Noir. From a site in the Russian River, it offers a huge perfume of ripe cherries and strawberry fruits, spices, forest floor, and exotic flowers. Deep, incredibly fine and elegant, with silky tannin, it’s much more about purity and finesse than overt power and richness. Don’t miss it!”

– Jeb Dunnuck, June 2018

94 POINTS

“Medium ruby-purple colored, the 2016 Pinot Noir Katherine Lindsay Estate is a little closed with notions of scorched earth, black soil, pepper and cumin over a core of redcurrants, black cherries and warm plums. Full-bodied, firm and with a grainy texture, this is a more structured Pinot, possessing many earth and spice layers and great length.”

– Lisa Perrotti-Brown, The Wine Advocate, June 2018

93 POINTS

“Shows the freshness of strawberries and blue fruits. Full-bodied, tight and focused with brightness and beauty. What wait on this one. Delicious.” – James Suckling, May 2018

92-95 POINTS

“The 2016 Pinot Noir Katherine Lindsay Estate is bold and juicy, but also has quite a bit of supporting structure to balance things out. I suspect the 2016 is going to need quite a bit of time to be at its very best. Even so, the purity of the fruit and overall intensity here are both striking. Inky red/purplish fruit, crushed rocks, lavender and sage build into the powerful, explosive finish.”
