

WAYPOINT

2019 Bell Road Zinfandel

From the very top of a hill that stares down on a lake and a creek, in one of the most picturesque places in the Sierra Foothills, lies this single block of old vine (25 yrs) Zinfandel. There are sweet black cherries, and blackberries, plum, milk chocolate, caramel, and vanilla notes with cedar, light spices, and flecks of warm green earth and stones. The palate is soft, full-bodied, and round with mouth-filling dark chocolate, chocolate-covered cherries in liqueur, vanilla spices, and loads of plummy black and red fruits.

A waypoint is an intermediate point or place on a route or line of travel. In modern terms, it most often refers to coordinates that specify one's position on the globe. In the wine world, one's waypoint tells a unique story of time and place in the glass. Waypoint was born out of the idea of spotlighting single-vineyard properties, throughout California, to highlight the unique terroir and characteristics of each of these singular plots of dirt. Between Pinot Noir, Cabernet, Merlot, and Petit Verdot, Waypoint was one of the first brands in California to place an emphasis on sourcing fruit from one specific locale and giving it the credit it was due.
