Effie Worldwide is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organisation that stands for effectiveness in marketing communications, spotlighting marketing ideas that work and encouraging thoughtful dialogue about the drivers of marketing effectiveness. In order to help fulfill this mission and provide learning to the industry, Effie relies on entrants’ willingness to share their finalist and winning case studies with the industry.

By providing permission to publish your written case, you are:

1. Bettering the industry.
   By allowing other marketers to learn from your success, you are inspiring the industry to raise the bar and make their marketing better.

2. Bettering the future leaders of our industry.
   Colleges and universities use Effie case studies in their courses, and Collegiate Effie participants learn how to write their own effective submissions by learning from yours.

3. Showcasing your team’s success in achieving one of the top marketing honors of the year.
   Effie wins help attract new talent, prove the importance of marketing in business, and strengthen agency-client relationships.

The Effie Awards entry and judging process is designed to help all entrants present their work effectively, while ensuring the confidentiality of classified information.

To help alleviate confidentiality concerns, the following pages outline Effie’s policies on confidentiality and the publication of submissions. Entrants are encouraged to reach out to Effie UK with any questions or concerns regarding our confidentiality policies.

The Effie Awards competition offers finalists and winners the opportunity to have written cases published in the Effie Case Database, in turn helping inspire the industry and do their part to Make Marketing Better. The written case and creative reel will be featured on the Effie Worldwide web site and/or on Effie partner web sites or publications.

We respect that entries may have information deemed confidential. Within the Entry Portal, entrants are asked to set publishing permission for the written entry.
Entrants may select from the following options:

- “PUBLISH AS THE CASE WAS SUBMITTED” – You agree that the written entry form may be published as it was submitted and reproduced or displayed for educational purposes.
- “PUBLISH AN EDITED VERSION OF THE WRITTEN CASE” – You agree to submit an edited version of your case study for publication which will be reproduced or displayed for educational purposes. You may redact any confidential information.
- “PUBLISH THE CASE AS IT WAS SUBMITTED AFTER THREE YEARS” – The written case will be published as it was submitted after three years. The case will be published as it was submitted and reproduced or displayed for educational purposes.
- “PUBLISH AN EDITED VERSION OF THE WRITTEN CASE AFTER THREE YEARS” – You agree to submit an edited version of your case study for publication which will be reproduced or displayed for educational purposes after three years. You may redact any confidential information.

The written case is the only portion of the entry that should contain confidential information. For that reason, the written case is the only portion of the entry that is included in the above publication permission policy. The creative work (reel, images), public case summary, and statement of effectiveness should not include confidential information and will be showcased in various ways if your entry becomes a finalist or winner.

Work submitted must be original or you must have the rights to submit it.
GUIDELINES ADDRESSING CONFIDENTIALITY CONCERNS

JUDGING
Judging events are held in secure locations led by Effie moderators. Judges are required to sign confidentiality agreements before judging begins. Judges cannot remove materials from the judging session and are individually matched with entries and categories that do not pose a conflict of interest. For example, a judge from the Beverages industry will not judge the Beverages category.

INDEXING DATA
While judging is confidential and entrants may select publication permission for their written case, Effie understands some entrants may still have concerns regarding sensitive information. When presenting numerical data within the entry, entrants may choose to provide those numbers as percentages or indexes, so that actual numbers are withheld. Additionally, unless the entrant opts to allow Effie to publish the entry as it was submitted if it becomes a finalist or winner, only judges will see the written entry as it was submitted.

CREATIVE WORK & PUBLICITY MATERIALS
The creative material (creative reel, images, publicity materials) and case summary you submit into the competition become the property of Effie Worldwide and the Effie Awards and will not be returned. By entering your work in the competition, the Effie Awards/Effie Worldwide is automatically granted the right to make copies, reproduce and display the creative materials, case summaries, and statements of effectiveness within the context of your Effie entry for education and publicity purposes.

Creative work, case summaries, and the statement of effectiveness may be featured in the Effie Awards Journal, Effie Worldwide’s website, partner websites, press releases/newsletters, programming/conferences and the Effie Awards Gala. Because materials for publicity & creative work will be published for all finalists & winners, no confidential information should be included in these elements.

In regards to confidentiality concerns in the Creative Reel:

- Per entry rules, results (of any kind) may not be included in the creative reel.
- Entrants are only required to showcase examples of the integral creative work that ran in the marketplace. Confidential information should not be featured in the creative reel.

Entrants must have the rights to show all elements presented in the creative reel. Because Effie is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization with the mission of providing learning to the industry, Effie has not encountered issues with talent featured in the creative that ran in the marketplace. The focus of the reel should be on this creative work – entrants should obtain the rights to feature any supplemental elements (music that did not run with the creative in-market, added stock imagery not used in-market, etc.).

In extraordinary circumstances, Effie will review requests to submit an edited reel for publication. Such requests should be submitted if the case becomes a finalist, as non-finalist creative reels are only seen by judges and will not be published.
ADDITIONAL POINTS
This year’s eligibility time period is 1st January 2019 – 31st December 2019 and the awards will be presented in September 2020. For some companies, this delay may alleviate some concerns regarding sensitive data.

Companies across the full spectrum – from large to small and across all industry sectors enter the Effie Awards. The Effie Award’s confidentiality policy, the ability to index data, the ability to set publication permissions, etc. are all established to ensure that any company can enter their effective work without hesitation.

We recommend nominating your client and agency team members for judging. Participating as a judge is one of the most valuable ways to learn about the award, understand how judging works, and experience our security and confidentiality rules firsthand.

To nominate a judge, please complete our Judge Application Form.

Effie Board, Executive Staff, and Committee members are senior, well-respected professionals in the industry on both the client and agency side. If you are interested, we would be happy to set up a time for them to talk to you about confidentiality during judging; how to involve key team members in the judging process; and how you can submit indexed data. If you would like to have a further discussion about confidentiality, please email mateja@effie.org.
