

Voter Education F.A.Q. (Frequently Asked Questions)

Q: How soon can I submit an absentee vote?

A: Absentee votes can be submitted as early as October 5. Please log-on to indianavoters.in.gov to request an absentee ballot.

Q: Will we be able to cast our ballot in November in our neighborhoods?

A: Yes. To view eligible voting locations, go to indianavoters.in.gov and click on Find Your Polling Location.

Q: What are the requirements for hand delivering your completed ballot to the Marion County Election Board?

A: If submitting an absentee ballot for someone, the individual for which the ballot is being submitted must be a member of their household or a relative. The representative who drops the ballot off must sign an ABS-19 form on the voter's behalf. Before submitting, bring an up-to-date picture ID, you must endorse all voter signatures. Your vote will not be counted if not submitted completely.

Q: For Marion County, where will there be early voting locations?

A: Early voters can cast their ballots at the Marion County Clerk's Office, located at 200 East Washington Street, Suite W122 in the City Council Building in Downtown Indianapolis.

Q: When does early voting begin at the Clerk's Office and well as the satellite sites?

A: Early voting begins on October 6, 2020 and ends on November 2, 2020

Q: Can felons legally vote in Indiana?

A: Those who are currently incarcerated are not eligible to vote. However, ex-felons are eligible to vote in the state of Indiana.

Q: What is being done by politicians to help curb and decrease voter suppression?

A: In-house legislative organizations like the Black Legislative Caucus (<https://indianahousedemocrats.org/members/iblc>) are hosting events and advocacy workshops. Connect with your local elected officials in their efforts to fight voter suppression.

Q: How do we encourage people to vote, even if the candidates are not highly favorable?

A: Encourage them to vote because major laws and policies are at stake during the election. Our votes are our voice and every vote counts!

Q: To ensure that my vote will count, would early voting or casting a mail-in ballot be better?

A: Early voting is strongly encouraged. If submitting a mail-in ballot, please ensure that all appropriate fields are completed before casting the ballot in person.
