

CENTRAL ALABAMA NURSE PRACTITIONER ASSOCIATION

canpa.org

Date: Saturday February 16, 2019 0730 -1700

Location: Bradley Lecture Center, Children’s Harbor 4th Floor
Children’s of Alabama, 1600 6th Avenue South, Birmingham, AL 35233

Registration: <https://canpa.enpnetwork.com/>

Both Adult & Pediatric Content will be Presented

Exact Numbers of CEs Pending

$60 CANPA Member $50 NP Student Member
$55 NP Student non-member
$100 non-Members

The Impact of Cardiometabolic Risk Across the Lifespan

Add Value to Your Practice

- “Dyslipidemia Across the Lifespan”
- “More than Reproduction: The Cardiometabolic Manifestations of Polycystic Ovary Syndrome”
- “Fostering Self-management of the obese patient”
- “Hypertension: What is it and How do we Manage it based on Guidelines”
- “Pediatric Diabetes”
- “Management of Hypertriglyceridemia”
- “Legislative Update”--- NPAA

MORE TO COME

Apply for Travel Award or Scholarships

CEs Pending

OBJECTIVES:

- Define cardiometabolic risks across the lifespan.
- Discuss pharmacological interventions to reduce cardiometabolic risk.
- Examine multiple strategies effective in reducing cardiometabolic risk.
- Provide legislative and practice updates for nurse practitioners in Alabama.

Agenda

- “Dyslipidemia Across the Lifespan” ---- -----T. "Brooks" Vaughn, III, MD
- “More than Reproduction: The Cardiometabolic Manifestations of Polycystic Ovary Syndrome”----- -Karen R. Hammond, DNP, CRNP
- “Fostering Self-management of the obese patient”---- Brandy S. Young, DNP, FNP-BC
- “Hypertension: What is it and How do we Manage it based on Guidelines”-----Katrina Smith, MSN, FNP-BC
- “Pediatric Diabetes”-----Ava Mitchell
- “Treatment & Management of Hypertriglyceridemia”--Casey Elkins, DNP, ACNP-BC