

The Maryland Academy of Advanced Practice Clinicians

in conjunction with the

Chesapeake Bay Affiliate of the National Association of Clinical Nurse Specialists

present

Pearls of Practice 8

Webinar will be available through March 27, 2021

University of Maryland DNP Students - Peer Reviewed Scientific Poster Presentations

Sabrina Sepulveda CRNP-PMH – Psychiatric Pharmacology Update for Primary Care

Loretta Trumble, CRNP - Egg Freezing & Oncofertility

Nick Tannous, MD - Pathopharmacology in Pain Medicine *

Bryan LeBude, MD – Update in Management of Heart Failure

Donna Zankowski, MPH, RN, FAAOHN - Workplace Violence

Andrea Brassard, PhD, FNP-BC, FAANP - Maryland NP Home Health Waiver & Federal Updates

Elaine Crain, DNP & Lorraine Diana, CRNP - Legislative Update

The Conference is open to all health care providers – Nurses, Nurse Practitioners (NP), Certified Nurse Midwives (CNM), Nurse Anesthetists (CRNA), Clinical Nurse Specialists (CNS), Physician Assistants (PA), Physicians (MD) & Pharmacists.

MAAPC & CBANACNS Members	$55.00
MAAPC Student Members	$15.00
General Admission	$135.00
Students	$40.00

Once registered, you will receive a passcode to access the webinar, CE survey & certificate.

CBANACNS members check with your organization for a coupon code to purchase the $55 registration.

This activity is approved for 7.0 contact hour(s) of continuing education (which includes 3.0 hours of pharmacology) by the American Association of Nurse Practitioners. Activity ID 20024160. This activity was planned in accordance with AANP Accreditation Standards and Policies.

Physicians and PAs can claim 7.0 Category 2 CME for this webinar.

*Nick Tannous' presentation meets the requirement for safe prescribing of opiates under COMAR

Since 2005, MAAPC has been the leading association in legislative and regulatory changes that benefit Maryland Advanced Practice Nurses. We welcome as members all APNs and PAs and are a completely volunteer association (<https://maapconline.enpnetwork.com>). Become a member today!