Email abstracts to fnapnj@gmail.com

FNAP invites APNs and APN students to showcase their scholarship efforts during our Annual Education Day which will be presented virtually this year.

We welcome abstracts that reflect current paradigms, including practice, research utilization, technology, education, leadership, management, inter-professional collaboration, as well as various other issues impacting advance practice nursing and self-care.

Instructions for submission

Single-spaced, one-inch margins, Times New Roman, font size 12. Word limit is 250 words.

-  Abstracts should include an introduction, description of basic concepts, and implications for clinical practice.
-  Abstracts for research, evidence-based practice, quality improvement, or any other APN related subjects (completed projects only): include an introduction, problem, methods/implementation, results/outcomes, and implications for clinical practice.
